

Camano Island Library Advisory Board Vacancy Announcement

The Sno-Isle Libraries is seeking to fill 2 vacant positions for a Board Member on the Camano Island Library Advisory Board. The positions will be for two and three year terms beginning August 2017.

The Board will act as an advisory board to the Sno-Isle Libraries Board of Trustees regarding matters of local interest relating to the Camano Island Library.

We are recruiting for Board Members willing to become intentional and focused advocates for their community library. The new Board Members will become community ambassadors to further raise the profile of our libraries and the crucial services they provide. A full orientation and training will be provided for each new Board Member.

An individual must live on Camano Island in order to qualify.
