

APPENDIX D

Current Library locations and population density

This map shows the locations of current Sno-Isle Libraries facilities and their relative size (large dots = larger facilities) in the context of current population density (darker color = higher density). Population density is the ratio of people per 10 acres.

Population Density, 2025

