

Sno-Isle Libraries is here to support you and your students this school year. The Educator Newsletter highlights library resources, events, and booklists for those who work with students in grades K-12. In this issue, you will find information about how to connect with your local library, upcoming educator workshops, and more!

Back to School Toolkit

Discover all the ways your public library can support you and your students with our handy Back to School Toolkit. Find everything you need in one place.

From teacher cards and student accounts to quick database video tutorials and much more, Sno-Isle Libraries is here for you!

School Support Form

Connecting with your local library is easier than ever with our School Support Form. Complete the form to request support any time, year-round. You can expect a response within 24-48 hours. Ways we can help include:

- In-person or virtual class visits to share library resources or homework help tools.
- Booklists to support curriculum units.
- Information tables at school family nights.
- And much more!

Have another need or idea? Tell us about it! We look forward to partnering with you.

Upcoming Educator Workshops

Start the school year off right with an interactive online workshop about resources and partnership opportunities at Sno-Isle Libraries. Washington State clock hours are available for these trainings.

Elementary Educator Resource Workshop

4:30 PM to 6:30 PM | Tuesday, September 27, 2022

Secondary Educator Resource Workshop

3:00 PM to 5:00 PM | Tuesday, October 4, 2022

Save the Date! New workshops are available this school year.

Adapting Resources for Learning Obstacles

4:30 PM to 5:30 PM | Tuesday, November 15, 2022

Tools and Resources for English Language Learners

4:30 PM to 6:00 PM | Thursday, February 9, 2023

Library Resources for Teacher Development

4:30 PM to 5:30 PM | Tuesday, April 18, 2023

Booklists

Classroom Read Alouds (K-8) Looking for your next classroom read-aloud? From the silly to the serious, these titles will help build a sense of classroom community, prompt meaningful discussions, and entertain your students.

Ready, Set, School! Discover the fun, silly, and sometimes hard parts of school in these books for elementary readers.

OMG, it's Fall Brisk air, darkening skies, cracklin' leaves, school supplies, oh my gourd it's fall! Get in the pumpkin spice mood with these teen novels with autumn vibes.

Subscribe to this newsletter.