

Who are we?

The Friends of the Mill Creek Library is a non-profit organization of volunteers who support and enhance the programs at the Mill Creek Library. We also work to promote literacy in the Mill Creek Community.

What do we do?

The funds we raise help support library programs and needs such as:

Summer Reading programs and prizes

- Children's programs
- Teen programs
- Adult programs
- Multi-cultural programs
- Multi-cultural events
- Equipment not covered by library budget
- Award professional development grants that provide training and enhance literacy. Grants are awarded to those who work and live in the Mill Creek area.

How do we raise funds?

- Ongoing book sale at the library
- Contributions
- Membership dues
- Donations made as a gift or as a "b honorarium".

How can you help?

- Become a member
- Volunteer your time
- Contribute money
- Donate books (you can drop them at the library)

Note: Donated books that are not sold are given to other local organizations such as the Mill Creek Food Bank, Mill Creek Rotary, and other organizations.

Your contributions make a difference!

The Friends of the Mill Creek Library is a 501 (c)3 non-profit organization.
